Profile

I was a lawyer and a CPA for 26 years, but I earned a Masters in Data Science through Bellevue University in June of 2021 and I have been studying data science and computer programming since May of 2018. I am now seeking employment in the data science industry. I also volunteer as a teaching assistant for Mystery Code Society and training hotels on sex trafficking for the Coalition on Human Trafficking.

Objective

To obtain a full-time data scientist position utilizing my analytical, problem-solving, programming and statistical skills.
